

A well-established company is growing its market segments into digital technological developments in social, mobile, cloud and ecommerce. Providing an online personalized platform for imprinting customers' life stories and exclusive personalized gifts for individuals and corporations.

We are looking for Software Engineering Intern (3-6 months):

The prospect will deliver functional code modules according to specifications and process. He will be coordinating and maintain the eCommerce web application and gather information from marketing to cater for business needs.

- Must have web development skills in following: HTML, CSS, JS, PHP, MySQL
- Take over duties of development and maintenance of PHP eCommerce platform based on Magento
- Work closely with superior to upgrade website with business and marketing requirements
- Be the point-of-contact to coordinate and follow-up on task executions
- Create, update and maintain IT project documentations

Requirements:

- Currently pursuing a Bachelor's, Master's or PhD degree in Computer Science, or a related technical field.
- Experience with coding in HTML, CSS, JS, PHP, MySQL
- Experience with data structures, algorithms, and software design.
- Excellent communication skills (written and verbal)
- Able to work independently and responsible for own causes
- Able to multi-task and meet strict deadlines
- Responsible for collecting and analyzing client requirements
- Candidate should be resourceful, independent and possess a positive, passionate and problem solving mind set

We offer a casual but dynamic environment that thrives on creativity and collaborative teamwork. We are passionate about providing the best possible user experience and changing the way people shop online for their love ones or valued clients.

If you are ready to make a difference, share with us your CV detailing your expertise, experience & creativity, and portfolio.

You have the skills, we have the platform